Based on the statements and arguments made in the Urgent Motions to Enforce and the Limited Objection, the Court hereby ORDERS that:

For the avoidance of doubt, Confidential Information includes customer/consumer names and addresses, account numbers, and identification of securities held in the accounts. The term "Confidential Information," however, shall not include information within the public domain that is furnished by any provider of information ("Provider") to a third party who is under no obligation to keep the information confidential.

defendants to object to use of Confidential Information may be provided by the Receiving Party in the body of any initial pleading and no further notice shall be required; and (c) this Order shall be self-effectuating such that no Receiving Party shall be required to file any motion or other pleading with the Court regarding further permission to file such “key” under seal.

- c. Upon the latest of (a) the date that a final judgment has been entered and satisfied as to all Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions and (b) the date that the above-captioned PROMESA Title III cases are closed by the Court, the Receiving Parties shall destroy all Confidential Information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiving Parties shall be permitted to retain, in accordance with its documented practices, professional obligations, applicable law or automatic electronic backup systems, archival copies of any Confidential Information. For the avoidance of doubt, the Receiving Parties shall not be required to destroy or erase any electronic copy of such materials that is created pursuant to its standard electronic backup and archival procedures, if only personnel whose functions are primarily information technology in nature have access to such retained copies (except to the extent used for any purpose outlined above in this paragraph) and such personnel’s access is limited to that reasonably necessary for the performance of their information technology duties. Notwithstanding the destruction of Confidential Information pursuant to this paragraph, the Receiving Parties will continue to be bound by their confidentiality obligations and other obligations under this Order in perpetuity; and
  - d. In the event that a Receiving Party receives a request to disclose all or any part of the Confidential Information under the terms of a subpoena or other order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by another governmental agency, relevant regulatory authority or by the mandatory rules or requirements of any recognized investment exchange, the Receiving Party shall to the extent permitted by law or the mandatory rules or requirements of any recognized investment exchange (a) promptly notify the Provider of the existence, terms and circumstances surrounding such a request, (b) consult with the Provider on the advisability of taking steps to resist or narrow such request, (c) if disclosure of such Confidential Information is required, furnish only such portion of the Confidential Information as the Receiving Party reasonably determines is legally required to be disclosed and (d) cooperate, at the Provider’s expense, with the Provider in its efforts to obtain a protective order or other relief to prevent the disclosure of the Confidential Information or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such portion of the Confidential Information that is required to be disclosed.
11. The Receiving Party shall maintain Confidential Information in a secure and safe area and shall exercise a standard of due and proper care with respect to the storage, custody, use, and/or dissemination sufficient to safeguard against unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of Confidential Information. Confidential Information shall not be copied, reproduced, extracted or abstracted, except to the extent that such copying, reproduction, extraction or abstraction is reasonably necessary for the conduct of the Challenged Bonds Avoidance Actions. All such copies, reproductions, extractions, and abstractions shall be subject to the terms of this Order and labeled in the same manner as the designated material on which they are based. If a Receiving Party learns that there has been a material breach of a Provider's Confidential Information due to unauthorized access by a third-party (including unauthorized access by a current or former employee of the Receiving Party) to Confidential Information in the Receiving Party's possession, custody or control, the Receiving Party shall as soon as possible notify the Provider of such breach and shall cooperate, or cause its designated agents to cooperate, with the Provider and the Provider's agents in the investigation and resolution of such breach. Nothing in this provision, however, shall be construed as authorizing or requiring a party to violate any law, court order, or regulatory obligation prohibiting the Receiving Party from notifying the Provider of such breach.

12. Any Provider or Receiving Party may seek additional orders from the Court that such Party believes may be necessary to comply with any law or contractual obligation relating to personal data or non-party financial information.
13. The terms of and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.
